Contest Rules:

Videos must include information about the positive impact CARFAC's programs and services have for visual artists in Canada.

All videos must include CARFAC's web address: www.carfac.ca.

Videos must be posted to Youtube or another video sharing site that allows users to "like" videos.

The videos with the most likes as of August 15th will win the contest.

Bursary recipients must attend the conference.

Only one bursary may be awarded per participant.

Eligible expenses include the conference registration, travel to the conference city and accommodations for the duration of the conference.

Receipts for all expenses must be submitted for reimbursement after the conference.

The amount of the bursary will not exceed the amount of the participant's eligible expenses.

Unless otherwise agreed with the participant, CARFAC may distribute the winning videos via social media, on our website and through email. After the conference is over, winners may choose to take down their videos and/or ask CARFAC not to use them further.

Additional bursaries may be given depending on the amounts requested by winners.

A contest form must be filled out and sent to director@carfac.ca.

Contest deadline: August 15th, 2014

Participants are encouraged to submit their videos in advance of August 15th to earn more "likes".

Barring unforeseen circumstances, bursary recipients will be informed by email by Friday, August 22nd.

Videos are not expected to be of professional quality.
